The project must contain the following items: theme, justification, theoretical framework, and references (the reference list should not exceed 2 pages).

2.4 Submission of documents

The required documents for the selection process must be uploaded during the completion of the online form. Incomplete applications will not be accepted.

3. Vacancies

Eight (8) positions are available.

4. Course offer cancellation

The University reserves the right not to conduct the selection process of this Call if the number of applicants is considered insufficient to offer the course. Any suspension of the Selection Process will be communicated in advance, and in this case, applicants will be entitled to a refund of the application fee.

5. Selection

The selection process for admission to the PPGFIL, conducted by a Committee composed of professors appointed by the Program's Collegiate Board, will consist of 3 stages:

Stage 1: Written Exam (weight: 3 points):

The first part of the exam, lasting up to 3 hours, will consist of answering one or more questions formulated by the Selection Committee regarding analyses and doctrines contained in one or more of the works mentioned in item 5.1.1 of this Call.

Stage 2: Oral Exam (weight: 3 points):

The oral exam will consist of a defense of the content included in the Curriculum Vitae (CNPq/Lattes model) and the Preliminary Thesis Proposal.

Stage 3: Evaluation of the Preliminary Thesis Proposal (weight: 4 points):

The following items will be evaluated: theme, justification, theoretical framework, and references.

5.1 Written Exam (3 points)

The written exam will be conducted online on November 19, 2024, starting at 2:00 p.m. and ending at 5:00 p.m. and will be classified for the next stage of the selection process. The exam will be based on the texts listed in item 5.1.1 of this Call, on which the Committee will formulate interpretative questions. The following items will be evaluated: comprehension of the text, argumentation, clarity, fluency of exposition, and correctness in Portuguese.

5.1.1 Basic Bibliography for the Written Exam

ARISTOTLE. Nicomachean Ethics. Books I to III. (Reference edition: Aristotle, Ethics to Nicomachus; translation by Mário da Gama Kury. Ed. UNB, 1985).
MILL, John Stuart. Utilitarianism. Chapter II. (Reference edition: MILL, John Stuart. On Liberty; Utilitarianism; translated by Eunice Ostrensky). São Paulo: Martins Fontes, 2000, pp. 185-215.
HOBBS, Thomas. Leviathan. Chapters XIII to XIX. 3rd ed. Translated by João Paulo Monteiro and Maria Beatriz Nizza da Silva. São Paulo: Martins Fontes, 2014.
HABERMAS, Jürgen. Between Facts and Norms: Contributions to a Discourse Theory of Law and Democracy. Chapter 1. Translated by Flavio Beno Siebeneichler. Rio de Janeiro: Tempo Brasileiro, 1997, pp. 17-63.

5.2 Oral Exam (3 points)

The oral exam will take place on November 22, 2024, starting at 9:00 a.m. and ending at 6:00 p.m., and will be classified for the next stage of the selection process. The scheduling of each candidate's exam time will be done by the PPGFIL office the day before the exam via the email address provided by the candidate in the application form. The oral exam will include the defense of the content included in the Curriculum Vitae (CNPq/Lattes model) and the Preliminary Thesis Proposal. The link to access the virtual room on the Google Meet platform will be sent by PPGFIL the day before the exam to the email address provided by the candidate in the application form.

5.3 Evaluation of the Preliminary Thesis Proposal (4 points)

The following items will be evaluated: theme, justification, theoretical framework, and references.

6. Preliminary results and selection of approved candidates

Candidates who obtain a score of 7 or higher will be preliminarily approved. The selection of the approved candidates will be based on the ranking, considering the total score obtained in the evaluation stages. In case of withdrawals, subsequent approved candidates will be called, in order of ranking, until the number of vacancies is filled.

In the event of a tie in the final result, the tiebreaker criterion will be the score on the written exam.

7. Publication of preliminary results

The publication of the names of the preliminarily selected candidates will take place on November 29, 2024.

8. Appeal

Candidates will have the possibility to appeal the decision issued by the Selection Committee, which will be reviewed and judged by a higher authority than the one that issued the questioned decision.

To submit the appeal, the candidate must do so in a document written by the candidate, explaining the reasons for the request.

The appeal must be sent to the email ppgfil@ucs.br by November 30, 2024.

The response to the appeal will be provided by December 04, 2024.

9. Publication of final results

The publication of the names of the selected candidates will take place on December 06, 2024.

10. Enrollment

Enrollment will take place on December 11 and 12, 2024, in accordance with the instructions to be provided along with the selection process results.

To complete enrollment, all candidates must present the master's degree diploma. If the diploma is still in the process of being issued, a declaration from the respective institution with relevant information must be submitted.

11. Special cases

Candidates with disabilities who require special assistance to participate in the selection process must formally request it from the Selection Committee by November 08, 2024, and submit a report issued by a specialist, explaining the nature, type, and degree of the disability, as well as the recommended conditions for the candidate's participation in the selection process. The request must be sent to the email ppgfil@ucs.br.

The Selection Committee will inform the candidate by November 13, 2024, of the possibility of full, partial, or no accommodation for the recommended conditions.
